

United Crusade Honors Slated for Volunteers

United Crusade volunteers from the Harbor area will be honored at the annual awards dinner tonight at 8:30 at the Los Verdes Country Club, according to Wendell Black, presiding campaign chairman.

Black said he hopes that some 200 volunteers from San Pedro, Torrance, Wilmington, Palos Verdes Peninsula, Gardena, Harbor City and Lomita... the communities that participate in the Harbor Area Crusade, will attend the event.

Arbor Day Ceremonies Scheduled

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn will be the featured speaker at Arbor Day ceremonies Saturday, March 5, at the South Coast Botanic Gardens, 26701 Rolling Hills Road.

Ceremonies will begin at 10 a.m. with the planting of the last 500 fruit trees donated by Torrance nurseryman Keiji Yata in memory of his father, Kelihiro Yata. Three trees include flowering plum, apricot, peach, and nectarine varieties.

An evergreen pear and a Wilson's holly tree will be planted at the same time. Myron Florin, a member of the Lawrence Welk Orchestra, will entertain during the program. Florin is a resident of Rolling Hills.

Mrs. Jack Bennett of Torrance, representing the Bay Harbor District of the Garden Clubs of Los Angeles, will present a check to the Botanic Gardens.

At the conclusion of the program, seedling trees will be given to all children accompanied by the parents.

Local Library Slates Films For Children

Three children's films will be shown at the Torrance Library, 1345 Post, Saturday morning at 10:30.

Films scheduled are "Family of N'Gumba," "Chairy Tale," and "Place in the Sun."

There will be no admission charge.

SEIZED IN RAID . . . Twenty bags of "raw" marijuana, packaged to sell for $10 each, were seized by Torrance police last Wednesday evening in a narcotics raid which resulted in the arrest of two teenagers. Also seized as evidence were eight marijuana cigarettes and paper used for making cigarettes, as well as several pills, held here by one of the officers. The marijuana is sufficient for about 4,500 cigarettes, which sell for 50 cents, officers reported. (Press-Herald Photo)

Polling Places Selected For Poverty Vote March 1

Polling places in the Southwest area for the March 1 election for representatives to the Economic and Youth Opportunities Agency board have been announced by the American Arbitration Association, which is supervising the election.

Polls, located in most high schools in the county, will be open from 7 a.m. until 9 p.m. Persons with $4,000 or less in annual family income may vote.

Most area voters are in County District 3 or Los Angeles City District 6, which includes all of Watts, the Shoestring Strip, Wilmington, and Harbor City.

Polling places will be located at Carson, North, South, Torrance, and West, high schools and at the South Bay Adult School in the county district. City polling places

Area Society Will Hear Betta Expert

The February meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society will be held tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Recreation Hall at McMasters Park, Artesia and Yukon Avenues.

Speaker of the evening will be Lester Barr, president of the Pomona Valley Aquarium Society. He will speak on color development in Bettas.

The business program will include nomination of new officers to be elected in March. Show fish of the month will be the Anabantids, the Gichlids, and the Nanlids.

All Betta fanciers and tropical fish enthusiasts are invited to attend.

Cactus Group Sets Meeting For Friday

The Gardena Cactus and Succulent Society will hold its monthly meeting Friday, at 8 p.m., at the Prairie Recreation Center, 141st St. and Prairie Avenue.

Don Skinner, botanical lecturer, will speak on the proper soils for plants and officer installation will be held. Officers for the year are Mrs. Evelyn Stilgebauer, president; Mrs. Mary Mueller, vice president; Mrs. Mae Vroom, secretary; and Mrs. Kay Herren, treasurer.

A trophy will be presented to the most outstanding club member of the year.

EYOA Board Candidates Will Speak

The Harbor Area Economic Opportunity Advisory Committee will hold a public meeting tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. in the Southern Counties Gas Co. auditorium, Eighth Street and Grand Avenue, San Pedro.

Candidates from County District 3 and Los Angeles City District 6 in the March 1 election for representatives to the EYOA Board will be introduced.

Fire Damage in Freeway Tunnel Being Repaired

Traffic on the connector road between the northbound Harbor Freeway and the westbound San Diego Freeway will be restricted to one lane until about March 23, a State Division of Highways official said today.

Lights in the tunnel will be out of service during the period, and motorists are advised to follow signs and drive with extreme care.

Construction work is under way in the area to repair damage caused several months ago by a truck fire.
